Parish Finance Committee: A meeting was held of the Committee on Monday evening last to discuss the financial situation of the parish, and to ensure good practice in all areas of finance. A big THANK YOU to our volunteer counters who get the money ready each week for the Bank. Please continue to use the envelope for easy allocation of funds and accounting.

Pope's Intention for July: For respect for human life. For the respect and protection of human life in all its stages, recognising it as a gift from God.

Readings this Weekend: To know the Father and the Son we must become pupils in the school of Christ. The way of Christ is one of humility and gentleness. Intellectual pride and arrogance are not to be seen in the Christian. The teachings of Christ are to be learnt with humility and in prayer.

Reflection: The benefits of peace will be felt everywhere, by individuals, by families, by nations, by the whole human race. - St. John XXIII.

A thought: True silence is not required but received. – Sabino Chiala.

National Synodal Pathway Update: Preparations are continuing for the National Synodal Assembly, which will take place in October. Working groups from across the country are reflecting on the key priorities identified through the synodal process and helping to shape the next stage of the Church's journey in Ireland. To learn more and view the latest video update from Fr Declan Hurley, Chairperson of the National Synodal Pathway, and Patricia Carroll, member of the National Synodal Pathway and Pastoral Coordinator for the Archdiocese of Dublin, please scan the QR code or follow the link provided. <https://theway.ie/the-irish-synodal-pathway-progress-and-purpose/>

Pope Leo. Leo's peace mission, launched from Africa, has held the Gospel up to a warring, disordered world, and called on ordinary people to rise up against the masters of war. He has picked a fight with no one, yet the demons, stung, have sallied forth in accusation and confusion. The curtain has risen. The stage is set. The pontificate has begun with a roar. – Austen Ivereigh. The Tablet, 25 April, 2026.

Important Notice: When booking a Funeral Mass always contact the parish priest first. The Diocesan Policy is to have no Funeral Mass outside of the Sunday Mass time on Sundays. Funeral Masses can be arranged for the other days of the week in consultation with the Parish Priest.

Knock Mini Vigil: The monthly mini vigil takes place at Knock Shrine on Friday, July 3rd. Confessions are available in the Chapel of Reconciliation from 8pm to 9pm. The vigil takes place in the Parish Church from 9pm to Midnight. All are welcome.
