With, the people of this diocese, I give thanks to God for your generosity in saying “Yes” back then. I thank God for your selfless ministry since. Through your hands you have been there for the People of God. There, in good times. There, in sad times. By your example and words, you invite them to believe and to strengthen their belief in God. Through your human friendship you support and guide them. Through your celebration of the sacraments, you gift them with the very special presence of God often, at those times in their lives, when they most need to feel his closeness. Although, not without its challenges, the life of a priest is a most blessed and wonderful life indeed. On a day like today, it is only right that we thank God for the gift of our priesthood and for the gift of each and every one of our priests.” (Bishop Michael, Chrism Mass 2026)

Use of Churches Churches are consecrated spaces. Their walls and altar have been anointed with the sacred Oil of Chrism. They have been set apart and dedicated solely for prayer, worship, the celebration of the sacraments and sacred rituals along with the safekeeping of the Eucharistic presence of Jesus among us. They are sacred spaces unlike any other. They stand as a unique reminder that God is with us and walks with us on the journey of life. In order to safeguard and emphasise the sacredness of our church buildings, Universal Church Norms and Clonfert Diocesan Norms do not permit churches to be used for: Non-religious concerts, performances or exhibitions Non-religious talks, seminars, social gatherings or functions The serving of food or beverages. Wakes or the reposing of the dead.

The Diocese of Clonfert is open to working with Parish Pastoral Councils and Parish Finance Committees to facilitate the use or improvement of parish halls or other parish owned buildings to accommodate non religious activities or to discuss the de - consecration of churches surplus to current requirements so that they might be used for other than religious purposes.

Help us to care for one another.

In a world upset by war and discord,

we beg for the gift of lasting peace.

With Mother Mary by our side,

may we journey together

as pilgrims of hope on the road of life.

We ask this of you, O loving Father, through Christ Our Lord. Amen
